DIOCESAN AND DEANERY EVENTS

Vocation Matters: "Speak, Lord, your servant is listening" In 1989, in his diocese of Milan, Cardinal Martini launched the 'Samuel Group', a monthly meeting for young people seeking to hear more closely God's call in their lives. Over a decade, 200 young people would come together each year, to ponder on the Word of God and seek spiritual guidance in order to listen, just as Samuel was instructed to listen by Eli. Now, Samuel Groups are found across the world, including our diocese of Clifton. Let us pray that the invitation of the Lord for young adults to consider more deeply their vocation will be heard more and more across our diocese. The Lord is calling! Let's make it possible for all to hear and discern well.
